

WEAVING EUROPE

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON
SILK HERITAGE AND DIGITAL TECHNOLOGIES

30 November - 4 December 2020

<https://weaving-europe.silknow.eu/>

The Conference

From flags to canopies, tapestries, furniture, bride clothing, traditional attire, etc., silk is found in countless contexts. Besides, it is also a multifaceted living heritage, because it involves more than the textile itself, around it there are designers, weavers, painters, etc. Although the Silk Road is often associated with its Asian origins, its European ramifications were fundamental for the construction of today's Europe.

The European Silk Heritage is linked to history, sociology and cultural production. It also underlined as an artistic connection. A fluid exchange that influenced the development of each productive points.

The commercial and cultural connection, liaised Europe for several centuries thanks to the exchange of goods and techniques, but also of ideas, religions, trends, which have been going through the diverse routes and trading ports, leaving traces and influences in each of them, building a common and shared history.

Organizers

This conference is organized by SILKNOW, a research H2020 European funded project, whose principal goals chase the conservation, spreading and protection of silk heritage.

Scientific Committee

- Ester Alba Pagán . Universitat de València
- Ricardo Franch Benavent. Universitat de València
- Maurizio Vitella. Università de Palermo
- Gemma María Contreras Zamorano. IVACOR
- Dunja Mladenčić. Institut Jozef Stefan
- Inmaculada Coma Tatay. Universitat de València
- Javier Sevilla Peris. Universitat de València
- Pierre Vernus. Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique -Université Lumière Lyon II
- Franz Rottensteiner. Gottfried Wilhelm Leibniz Universitaet
- Marie-Véronique Leroi. Chargée de mission Web sémantique, Ministry of Culture, France
- Raphaël Troncy. EURECOM

Organizing Committee

- Ester Alba Pagán . Universitat de València
- Jorge Sebastián Lozano. Universitat de València
- Cristina Portalés Ricart. Universitat de València
- Mar Gaitán Salvatella. Universitat de València
- Eliseo Martínez Roig. Universitat de València
- Marcos Fernández Marín. Universitat de València
- Arabella León Muñoz. Garín 1820

Aims-Goals

The aim of this international conference is to spread today's research about historic fabrics together with the last technology applied to cultural heritage. The forum would merge professionals from different scopes as museums, tourism, creative industries, innovative hubs, universities, etc. where heritage & technology would be the junction points.

This international conference aims at spreading recent research about historical silk fabrics, together with the latest technology applied to cultural heritage. The forum will merge professionals from different sector, such as museums, tourism, creative industries, innovative hubs, universities, etc. where heritage and technology are a shared interest.

The conference will also foster a collaborative code of practices to promote the defense and safeguarding of textile heritage.

Finally, it also disseminates methodologies on cataloguing and inventorying that will increase the cooperation among institutions, in order to share their data and provide open access to it.

Target Audience

Researchers and professors from the academic area, undergraduate, postgraduate and Ph.D. students; private business related to tourism, creative industries, art crafts and traditional industry; fashion professionals and business-related to the silk industry.

Program

30th November 2020

10:00 10:30	Ester Alba Marcos Fernández Universitat de València	OPENING SESSION SILKNOW, weaving our past into the future
10:45 11:15	Patricia Harping Getty Research Institute	Challenges and Resources for Terminology in Cultural Heritage. The Case of the Getty Art & Architecture Thesaurus
11:20 11:50	Mar Gaitán Universitat de València	Controlled vocabularies: an essential tool for conserving textile cultural heritage
11:55 12:30	Dolores Serrano Universidad de La Laguna	Desde Al-Ándalus hasta Canarias: la herencia viva de la otra ruta de la seda
13:00 15:00		LUNCH BREAK
15:00 15:30	Arabella León Garín 1820	Pasado, presente y futuro de una industria textil sedera
15:35 16:00	Cristina Portalés Universitat de València	Reproducción tridimensional de tejidos tradicionales. El caso del espolín valenciano
16:05 16:35	Chimo Soler Instituto Cervantes	La ruta de la seda: un patrimonio compartido

1st December 2020

10:00 10:30	Jose Luiz Pedersoli ICCROM	PLENARY SESSION Our Collections Matter: Enabling Sustainability through Heritage Collections and their Conservation
10:45 11:15	Maurizio Vitella Gerorgia Lo Cicero UNIPA	I risultati della ricerca per Silkknow. Tessuti inediti dai Musei Ecclesiastici della Sicilia Orientale
11:20 11:50	Jorge Sebastián Universitat de València	La interoperabilidad de los catálogos online de museos textiles: algunas experiencias
11:55 12:30	Marie Puren CNRS-LARHRA	Developing a data model for textile heritage based on CIDOC-CRM
13:00 15:00		LUNCH BREAK
15:00 15:30	Thomas Schleider EURECOM	Exploring the European Silk Cultural Heritage through the SILKNOW Knowledge Graph
15:35 16:00	Luis Rei Institut Jozef Stefan	Cross-Lingual Text Classification for Inferring Variables Describing Silk Fabrics
16:05 16:35	Mareike Dorozynski Leibniz Universität Hannover	Artificial Intelligence meets cultural heritage: Image classification for the prediction of semantic properties of silk fabrics

Program

2nd December 2020

10:00 10:30	Patryk Wojciechowski	PLENARY SESSION The SilkNow Collection
10:45 11:15	Raúl Abeledo Universitat de València	Culture as a strategic innovation factor for the Textile and Clothing sector: the CreativeWear project
11:20 11:50	Francis Montesinos Alex Villar	La seda, inspiración, tejido y medio de expresión en la creación de Francis Montesinos
11:55 12:30	Mar Moya EASD València	Rediseñando la ruta de la seda
13:00 15:00		LUNCH BREAK

	BOARD 1
15:00 15:20	Guillem Bernat Alventosa Talamantes Museu Valencià de la Festa d'Algemesí	La seda y el estudio de la indumentaria como ejemplo de gestión cultural en Algemesí
15:25 15:45	Maria Vona Politecnico de Torino	El Filatoio Rosso de Caraglio (CN): cara y cruz del desplazamiento territorial de la producción piamontesa y la renovación del espacio como Museo de la seda en el Piamonte
15:50 16:10	Maria Roca Universitat de València	Seda de la Alhambra. Colección Fortuny en la Hispanic Society of America
16:15 16:35	María Romero Valle Ismael Amaro Martos Museos de Ciudad Real	El museo dedicado a Manuel Piña en Manzanares (Ciudad Real)

	BOARD 2
15:00 15:20	María Luisa Vázquez de Ágredos Pascual; Cristina Expósito De Vicente; Simona Tardi; Susana Herreras Sala; Lucía Rojo Irazo Universitat de València	Proposal of a sustainable cultural tourism itinerary in Gaza, East Jerusalem and Cisjordania with a positive impact on the empowerment of Palestinian women and human development
15:25 15:45	Yurika Saito Nature and Science Museum. TUAT	Three-Dimensional Digital Reconstruction of a Western Silk Mill Introduced to Japan in the 19th Century
15:50 16:10	Alexey Kalistratov Rimma Timofeeva SPbSUITD	The use of silk in body armor of the Russian Empire at the turn of the XIX - XX centuries
16:15 16:35	Francesca Zanutto Università di Torino	Venice and the Silk: from a Silk Road Museum to a geolocated storytelling

Program

2nd December 2020

	BOARD 3
15:00 15:20	Susana Herreras Sala Amparo González García Lucía Rojo Iranzo Universitat de València	The artistic education of women in Valencia at the beginning of the 20 th century: the textile workshops of the Escola d'art i Superior de Disseny of València as a context for learning and female empowerment
15:25 15:45	Edgar Talens Universitat de València	La seda del Carmen: el último taller gremial de la ciudad de València
15:50 16:10	Santiago Espada UNED	La versión más textil del escultor Francisco Salzillo y Alcaraz. Un relevante patrimonio cultural a conservar

	BOARD 4
15:00 15:20	Nade Genevska Bracik Liljana Kovacovska Dusica Bracik NI Institute and Museum Bitola Museum of Republic North Macedonia Institut of Ethnology and Anthropology	The production of silk and its use in the territories of North Macedonia
15:25 15:45	María Luisa Vázquez; Simona Tarbi ; Cristina Expósito; Susana Herreras Universitat de València	Silk, color and aromas: The paths of a common heritage. Towards new museographies to promote a culture of peace
15:50 16:10	Francisco Ribes Universitat de València	Moda y demanda de tejidos de seda en Hispanoamérica a finales del siglo XVIII: una contribución valenciana a través del comercio colonial

Program

3rd December 2020

10:00 10:30	Pilar Benito Patrimonio Nacional	PLENARY SESSION Colecciones de Patrimonio Nacional de España
10:45 11:15	Germán Navarro Universidad de Zaragoza	Los nombres de los tejidos medievales en la Corona de Aragón: el mundo de las sedas
11:20 11:50	Ricard Huerta Universitat de València	Los Museos de la Seda en Asia y Europa. Análisis de elementos arquitectónicos, proyecto museográfico y propuestas educativas
11:55 12:30	Ricardo Franch Universitat de València	Desde Al-Ándalus hasta Canarias: la herencia viva de la otra ruta de la seda
12:30 13:00	Dani Muñoz Universitat de València	Vermis sericus . La sericultura y el negocio de la seda en el Mediterráneo Occidental a comienzos de la Edad Moderna
13:00 15:00		LUNCH BREAK
15:00 15:30	Xenophon Zabulis FORTH	Representation and Preservation of Heritage Crafts
15:35 16:00	Javier Sevilla Universitat de València	STMaps, a tool for visualizing spatio temporal knowledge graphs
16:05 16:35	Tina Tomovic Hochschule Luzern	Silk Memory - targets beyond the webportal

4th December 2020

	ROUND TABLE 1.1	From documentation to open digital data, challenges and opportunities
10:00 11:15	Jorge Sebastián (Moderator) Universitat de València	Amparo López. Museo Lázaro Galdiano Pablo González. Museu de Belles Arts de València Celia Diego. Museo Nacional de Artes Decorativas

	ROUND TABLE 1.2	Museums & textile heritage
10:00 11:15	Ester Alba (Moderator) Universitat de València	Ricard Huerta. Museo de la Seda de València Jaume Coll. Museo Nacional de Cerámica y Artes Suntuarias González Martí Rafa Gil. Museu del Tèxtil de la Comunitat Valenciana d'Ontinyent

	ROUND TABLE 2	European projects: a development opportunity
11:15 12:00	Rodrigo Martín Galán (Moderator) European Comission	Agata Ulanowska. Uniwersytet Warszawski Karen Brown. University of St. Andrews Mar Gaitán. Universitat de València

1200 13:00	Marco Rendina European Fashion Association	CLOSING SESSION Sharing Europe's fashion heritage online
---------------	--	--